Earl will record the detail of sanctions imposed on SIMS and return the form to the relevant HOY for filing in pastoral offices.
Subject clinics/interventions All subjects run a weekly support session/clinic many on a 'drop in' basis. Pupils may be directed to attend a clinic for support in a particular area	Additional information Timetable of subject clinics to be published at the start of the year Failure to attend a clinic when directed to do so by a member of staff may result in a sanction

SANCTIONS

In most cases pupils should be given a verbal reprimand/reminder first and then the opportunity to correct the issue. Failure to respond to a verbal reprimand/reminder may then result in a sanction.

School Detentions and the Law

This is an extract from the letter to parents when notifying them of a detention.

Detentions are a sign that your behaviour or attitude is not acceptable; you should not be receiving detentions.

If you are given a detention it is compulsory and not negotiable with you or with your parents; the detention will take place regardless of whether you or your parents agree to it. A slip is sent home to inform your parents of the detention and their signature is simply to confirm they have received notification.

Failure to attend a detention will result in a further sanction followed by completion of the original detention.

Spalding High School detentions:

Departmental detention - Lunchtime on a day specified by the HOD (reasons for receiving could include late, incomplete or unsatisfactory work or poor behaviour in class)

Pastoral detention - Tuesday lunchtime 1.00 – 1.30pm (reasons for receiving could include lunchtime behaviour, failure to adhere to rules about mobile phones, failure to wear the correct uniform)

Senior Staff detention - Monday afterschool 3.45 – 5.00pm (reasons for receiving could include a more serious academic or pastoral incident or persistent failure to complete work/adhere to school rules)

Headmistress' detention - Afterschool 3.45 – 5.15pm at a time arranged by the Headmistress

Detentions should take precedence over clubs and activities, at lunchtime or afterschool
