

Jill Abram

An Associate governor and Assistant head with responsibility for Teaching and Learning, Initial teacher training and newly qualified teachers. I also oversee the Lower School pastoral teams. My subject specialism is English. I previously worked as Head of Lower School for many years and have worked at Spalding High since 1986. I am an 'old girl' of the school and proud of my long association with such a wonderful school.