

Julian Rathbone

I run a training business and live in Spalding. I have been a parent governor since 2013, attending full governor and finance committee meetings. I am keen to actively support the continued success of the school.